

TDX GROUP NAMED AMONG UK'S BEST WORKPLACES

The Great Place to Work® Institute's UK's annual rankings of the UK's Best Workplaces named TDX Group among the top fifty best places to work in the country.

TDX Group was commended for its commitment to the development of its employees. In an industry renowned as extremely competitive the company was applauded for placing such a strong focus on the welfare of its staff. The Great Place to Work® Institute said that its commitment to fostering personal and professional excellence ensures it stands out amongst its peers.

Mark Onyett, Chief Executive, TDX Group said: "We are delighted and proud to be acknowledged as one of the best employers in the country. TDX Group was only formed in 2004 and the company has grown by over 100% in the last 12 months and now has an annual turnover of around £25 million. Our success is based on the quality and enthusiasm of our staff and we are determined to continue to provide an environment that ensures that individually and collectively they can continue to develop and flourish."

Williams Johnson Mota, Business Development and Sales Manager for Great Place to Work® Institute commented:

"The TDX Group exemplifies what it means to be a great place to work. The company has managed to balance a dynamic culture with a commitment to business excellence. The company has instigated policies that facilitate the personal and professional development of employees. Other firms would do well to emulate the best practice human resources management policies employed by this company."

"Effective people management is increasingly recognised as a key driver for business success, delivering greater productivity and lowering costs through reduced employee turnover."

The Great Place to Work® Institute evaluates the degree of trust in relationships at organisations by analysing employee responses to its Trust Index® Employee Survey and Culture Audit® management survey. The research encompasses key metrics that determine a leading working environment, from the benefits available to employees through to levels of employee engagement with senior management.

The UK's Best Workplaces Programme is run by the Great Place to Work® Institute UK, which forms part of the world's largest scheme to recognise excellence in people management. A great place to work is one where employees trust the people they work for, have pride in what they do and enjoy the people with whom they work.

The Great Place to Work® Institute is a global research and management consultancy with expertise on workplace transformation and has a presence in 32 countries worldwide. The global research programme is the world's largest in the sector with over 4,000 organisations and over 1.5 million employees surveyed each year.

For over 25 years the Great Place to Work® Institute has been working with clients all over the world to help them to understand what constitutes a great place to work and develop the culture of their organisation using the Great Place to Work® model.
