

PRESS RELEASE

30 May 2017

TDX Group wins Nottingham Post Business Award for 'Contribution to the Community' after raising over £97,000 for charity in 2016

- More than 45 individual charities supported in 2016
- 642 hours of volunteering by employees
- Team run a total of 261 miles and cycle 2,051 miles throughout the year
- £89,266 donated to Nottinghamshire-based Children's Bereavement Centre

TDX Group, the UK's leading provider of data and debt recovery solutions, is delighted to announce that it has won the Nottingham Post Business Award for 'Contribution to the Community' – thanks to the phenomenal efforts of its 360 employees who, in 2016, raised more than £97,000 for charities in and around the East Midlands.

£89,266 of the total amount raised went to its charity of the year, the Children's Bereavement Centre, enabling it to offer even more support to local children who are impacted by the death, terminal illness and divorce or separation of someone close.

Laurence Hamilton, General Manager at TDX Group, said:

"To win a Nottingham Post Business Award is an absolute honour given the fantastic work that so many local businesses do in the community. However, the true importance of the award for me is that it is recognition of the spectacular amount of hard work and sheer tenacity of TDX Group colleagues."

"This win comes off the back of another tremendous accolade we received earlier in the month at the Credit Awards where we were awarded 'Best Company to Work for in Collections'."

"I am genuinely so proud of the team here at TDX Group and I want everyone to know it!"

Nottingham-based, TDX Group was founded in 2004 and is now part of Equifax. The company and its 360+ employees are committed to supporting the community and local charities. Every year TDX Group colleagues choose a charity to support as part of its 'Make the Connection' corporate and social responsibility programme.
